We had a special friendship with Bill and Jackie Erickson. When we moved to Arizona a few years ago, Bill played the role of general manager for all that needed to be done in our newly purchased home before we arrived. When we settled in, Bill was our guide to many special places across the valley. He taught us the Arizona way....from the natural landscape to animals and critters and everything in between. He was about as good a friend as anyone is ever lucky enough to have. We were sad when they moved back 'home' and even sadder to hear of Bill's illness and death. His beautiful family will carry his legacy proudly. RIP dear friend.

I've been blessed to know Jackie and Bill more than 40 years. What a wonderful couple and a true gentleman. We always enjoyed going to breakfast together where an hour would turn to 3 or 4. Even though my spouse only knew Bill a few years, he too admired Bill's kind heart. We will miss you deeply.
