

William Frederick Bryan

August 11, 1949 - October 19, 2023

William F. Bryan

age 74 of Edina, passed away peacefully at his home on 10/19/2023.

Preceded in death by parents, Wilson S. Bryan and Eva L. Bryan siblings, Brother - Edward W. Bryan Sister - Eloise M. Bryan

A 1967 graduate of Edina High School, Bill attended Dunwoody Institute and apprenticed as a tool and die maker. An avid outdoorsman, he was a Boy Scout of many years both as a youth and adult. His skills and dedication were recognized by his fellow scouts by bestowing him the Vigil Honor in the Order of the Arrow. His name appears on 26 US Patents as a testament to his inventiveness and developing original solutions to mechanical problems. Always willing to give of his time, knowledge, and talents, he loved to teach children about gardening, fresh produce and especially vegetables. Member of: Lake Harriet Masonic Lodge, Zuhrah Shrine, & Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd; a skilled craftsman, gardener, builder and friend to all, he will be deeply missed. Survived by nephews, Jason Bryan and Wilson King, and many friends. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to Minnesota Masonic Charities and the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd.

“ Bill was Lake Harriet Masonic Lodge's Mason of the year in 2006, recognized for all of his hard work organizing the Freemason's Child ID program at the Minnesota State Fair. I will miss seeing his smiling face at Lake Harriet's Burger Days and his reminding Facebook friends of the full moon!

*Alas my brother!
