We are deeply saddened with the loss of Bill, our long-time friend and co-worker. Although sympathy is small consolation, even from the hearts of us who share your sorrow, we want you to know that the loss of Bill is heartfelt here. “ I'm sadden to hear of Bill's passing. He was my next door neighbor and friend. I spent many hours playing baseball with him at Emerson grade school and 16th St street ball. Drained many a baseball down a storm sewer. Bill had the only basketball hoop in the neighborhood and we played lots of games of Horse and "21". But my fondest memory was when we strung phone lines between our houses using a pair of old WWII field telephones of my Dad's. Our own private phone system. Hail and farewell Bill.
