

William Jardine

November 23, 2003

- Jardine, William T. 'Bill', 86, of Edina. Former Circulation Manager at the Minneapolis Star Tribune. During his 44 years of employment, he was named to the Newspaper Carrier Hall of Fame by the International Circulation Manager's Association, and he was also past president of this association (ICMA). He was in the infantry in WWII and was awarded the Silver Star. He rose to the rank of Captain via a battlefield promotion. He also received the Combat Infantry Badge, Bronze Star and the Croix de Guerre (from France) and Purple Heart. He is survived by his wife, Eileen; three daughters, Jill Harder (Jim), Judy Stucki (Frank), Mary Mueller (Tim); and two sons, John Jardine and Jeff Jardine (DeVonne), Des Moines, IA; eight grandchildren, Molly Cox (John) and Matthew Swenson (Lea), Melissa Stucki Stevens (Ben), Michael Stucki, Jessica and Christina Mueller, and Tim and Amber Jardine; great-granddaughter, Olivia Swenson; brothers, Donald (Marian) of St. Paul and Thomas of Edina. Memorial Mass, 7PM Mon. Nov. 24 at ST. PATRICKS CATHOLIC CHURCH IN EDINA, 6820 St. Patrick's Lane (Gleason Road and Valley View Road). Friends may call from 5-7PM at St. Patricks. Private burial at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. Donations to your favorite charity or Our Lady of Good Counsel Free Cancer Home, 2076 St. Anthony Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55104. Washburn McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996.