Age 74

Preceded in death by his mother Marion A Nelson and brother Arnold P Nelson the 2nd. He is survived by wife Carol Nelson, the love of his life and sister Gail Colon.

He was married for 26 years.

He passed away on Christmas Day at home with his wife Carol. He had significant health problems the last six-seven years of his life. He was the love of my life and so many others. He was the most loving husband, son, brother, uncle, and friend. He also was the most wonderful, kind, caring and giving person you could have ever met. I miss you so much honey.

A celebration of life will be held in the summer.

“ I first met Bill at the T-Shoppe where he was a bartender and also dating my sister Carol. He was so well liked by everyone there and always had a big smile. He was a great husband and friend to my sister Carol, he would do anything for her. You'll definitely be missed Bill, and also the Birthday songs you and Carol would sing to everyone on their Birthday. Now at Peace and no more suffering. Love you ❤️ Lorraine Gustafson (sister n-law).
