“ Billy Joe was a remarkable and unique person who loved giving of himself to all he met. His beautiful family is a testimony of his love, each member sharing in his kindness and caring and gentleness and love of his deep faith which he practiced every day. Bill you raised a wonderful family and Pat, you are truly special too. You and Bill, his son, and daughter, Holly, showed much compassion to Billy Joe during this difficult time he struggled to maintain his strength and dignity by continually showing of your love to him through your taking care of him. His Grandkids brought him so much joy and were bonded even closer together through his pain and suffering. May you all find Peace in knowing he is with Our Father in Heaven. God bless all of you. ”

“ God blessed us all with Bill's presence the day he was born. My wonderful cousin
"Billy Joe" is embedded in my heart for eternity. Always kind, always giving, always protective, always loving. The strength he showed during the past few years is a testament to his unselfishness to make his family feel comfortable before his needs. The love he showed to his children, and to his grandchildren was enormous. The biggest honor I witnessed was the enormous love he received from his entire family.
My father (with 4 girls in our household) used to "borrow" Bill and take him fishing and into our house just so he could have a special guy around. My father was a great judge of character.
Bill, I will miss you more than you know. Your family will miss you more than you know. What a gift you gave to all of us, yourself. I know you're not far away. God bless you.
Love beyond forever,
LuLu and Gary Peterson and family
