

William G. Shank

August 31, 2012

Shank, William George February 28, 1919 - August 31, 2012 Bill passed away peacefully in his sleep in the presence of his family. He was born in Los Angeles and died in Mpls where he and his wife moved from Seattle to be near their daughter, Leslie. He is predeceased by his son, Geoffrey, and survived by his loving wife, Harriet, their daughter, Leslie and his brother, Wayne. Bill was a devoted fan of music and great support to his wife, who played cello in the Seattle Symphony for 28 years, his son, who was a very talented cellist and played in orchestras in Spain, and his daughter, who is a violinist in The St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. He was a Merchant Marine during WWII, which he was very proud of, and the son of a Colonel of the US Army. Therefore, he saw the world from a very young age, following his father's military posts. He worked as an engineer at Boeing in Seattle for more than 20 years. He will be interred at Acacia Memorial Cemetery in Seattle, WA. www.Washburn-McReavy.com Davies Chapel 612-377-2203