“ Wilma was a truly loving, caring person and cherished next door neighbor in the true sense of that word. She and her family were there to respond and care for all of us Hegdahl's in time of need, be it babysitting children for weddings, watching and managing our house, our yard, or our pets, during crisis or vacation, chatting over the phone or across the fence, helping us through our growing up, our parents sickness, death, and funerals, our house sale, and our goodbyes. She was a person who would volunteer before you could ask, and cheer you up with her presence and rock solid, ever present support. We have been so blessed to have her in our lives. For Don and Jean who have also passed and, and by, the extended families of their children over our three generations together.
