

Winfield Scott

October 6, 2009

Scott, Winfield James 91, formerly of Hopkins and Longville, MN, died 10/3/09. Win was preceded in death by his parents Jim and Mamie Scott, wife Fayne (Thompson) Scott and sister Jean Proper. Survived by daughter, Carol Sue Johnson-Rosenberg and son-in-law, Gary Rosenberg; grandchildren, Carol Dulis and Lance Streff (Sue); great-grandchildren, Austin and Madison Dulis and Scott and Lauren Streff; friend and true caregiver, Kathy Johnson (Bob); wife, Retha Marsh Scott residing in California. Win was a graduate of St. Cloud Teachers College after serving in the Navy during WWII and received his Masters degree in Education. He became principal of Oak Knoll Elementary School and Harley Hopkins School where he enjoyed his work with the families and staff until his retirement. He also built and owned Woman Lake Resort, now known as All Seasons on Woman Lake, Longville, MN, where he enjoyed entertaining guests with waterskiing and other outdoor activities. He loved the Longville area and maintained a residence in Longville as long as possible. The family wishes to thank the staff at Parkshores, Age Well and Heartland Hospice for all their kind care of Win. Memorial service will be Wednesday, Oct. 7, 5:30 PM with visitation one hour prior to the service at: Washburn-McReavy Strobeck Johnson Chapel 1400 Mainstreet, Hopkins 952 938-9020