“ I met Yan Chun the first time when I went to WI to help put up Shen Yun posters. That was also the first time I put up Shen Yun posters after I came to USA. After that we met several times. Every time we met, Yan Chun was very friendly. My dad still remember once we drive from Chicago back to MN, we met Yan Chun at a rest area of highway. Yan Chun gave us many cucumbers and other vegetables she planted. The last time I met Yan Chun was last year we helped cooking for Shen Yun performers in the kitchen. Yan Chun worked very hard.

I believe she has finished her loving journey and went to a very good place. My thoughts are with the entire family.

“ I worked with Yan at Paul Bunyans, in Wisconsin Dells, one summer and we became instant friends. I mentioned that I was a teacher, in Reedsburg WI, and Yan said her children went to school there. I was so excited to tell Yan that I was Jeremiah, Brandy & Heather’s art teacher. Yan was so loving and generous. She gave me vegetables from her garden and bean seeds she brought from China. My brother is the gardner of the family and he’s still growing Yan’s beans! She gave me zucchini and I made zucchini bread that she & Chris loved. I was able to see Yan at Jeremiah’s memorial service and she greeted me with a huge smile & bear hug. Yan was such a ray of sunshine. I’ll remember her always. My deepest sympathy to the entire family.
