

Yim Ping Cheung

May 9, 1967 - May 16, 2022

Yim Ping Cheung, 张艳萍, age 55, passed away on May 16, 2022 at Methodist Hospital, surrounded by her family after a courageous battle with cancer.

Yim was a beloved wife of 33 years to husband, Ping Cheung; loving mother of Ricky (Caroline) Cheung and Mike Cheung; and adoring grandmother of Clara Cheung. She is also survived by her parents Weiqiang and Nuan Zhang; her brothers Rong (Xiao Q) and Yong (Xiao J); and their families.

Yim was born in Enping, China on May 9, 1967. In 1992, she immigrated to America to start a new life with her three year old child, Ricky. This is where she joined her loving husband who had come several years prior to begin building roots in Minnesota. It was here that she found her passion for food and nourishing others through her experience in the restaurant industry, starting as a waitress and eventually becoming a restaurant owner. Up until her last month, Yim would be found in the kitchen making delicious meals for her family.

Yim found the most joy in spending time with her family and making others happy. She was extremely caring, generous, and selfless towards anyone she met. Whether she was with her closest friends and family or a new acquaintance, Yim would make anyone feel welcome and at home.

Interment, 墓葬, at Lakeview Cemetery following the Service.

A Celebration of Yim's Life, 追悼会, will be held on Friday, May 27, 2022 at Washburn-McReavy at 10AM with visitation one hour prior at:
