“ Yovanna and her family are in my thoughts. As the librarian at the Adult Corrections Facility, I always enjoyed talking with her. She was a kind and thoughtful corrections officer and an enthusiastic reader. We would frequently talk about what we were reading, and she always had lots of suggestions for books that we should add to the facility library for the residents. Working in a corrections facility is challenging and hard, but every time that I saw Yovanna she radiated a joyful and positive attitude. It was clear that really cared about all people. She will be missed by facility residents and staff. - Dan
